SAMP is an international partnership network linking organizations committed to training, public education, policy development, research and delivery of technical expertise on migration and development issues.

KEY FOCUS AREAS

- Migration and development
- South–South migration
- Diaspora engagement
- Migration and food security
- Migration governance

Contact: Prof Jonathan Crush, jcrush@balsillieschool.ca
Rethinking the Medical Brain Drain Narrative

SAMP started its migration policy series in 1997. The latest issues are:

81. Rethinking the Medical Brain Drain Narrative
80. Problematizing the Foreign Shop: Justifications for Controlling the Migrant Spaza Sector in South Africa
79. Rendering South Africa Undesirable: A Critique of Refugee and Informal Sector Policy
78. Comparing Refugees and South Africans in the Urban Informal Sector
77. Living With Xenophobia: Zimbabwean Informal Enterprise in South Africa
76. Refugee Entrepreneurial Economies in Urban South Africa
75. Competition or Co-operation? South African and Migrant Entrepreneurs in Johannesburg
74. Informal Entrepreneurship and Cross-Border Trade between Zimbabwe and South Africa
73. Informal Entrepreneurship and Cross-Border Trade in Maputo, Mozambique
72. Food Remittances: Migration and Food Security in Africa
71. International Migrants in Johannesburg’s Informal Economy
70. International Migrants and Refugees in Cape Town’s Informal Economy
69. Calibrating Informal Cross-Border Trade in Southern Africa
68. Informal Migrant Entrepreneurship and Inclusive Growth in South Africa, Zimbabwe and Mozambique
67. Migrant Entrepreneurship Collective Violence and Xenophobia in South Africa
66. Xenophobic Violence in South Africa: Denialism, Minimalism, Realism
65. Brain Drain and Regain: Migration Behaviour of South African Medical Professionals
63. Dystopia and Disengagement: Diaspora Attitudes Towards South Africa
62. Heading North: The Zimbabwean Diaspora in Canada
61. Unfriendly Neighbours: Contemporary Migration from Zimbabwe to Botswana
60. Linking Migration, Food Security and Development
59. The Third Wave: Mixed Migration from Zimbabwe to South Africa
58. The Disengagement of the South African Medical Diaspora
57. Patients Without Borders: Medical Tourism and Medical Migration in Southern Africa
56. Right to the Classroom: Educational Barriers for Zimbabweans in South Africa

Harnessing Migration for Inclusive Growth and Development in Southern Africa (2017). This Special Report presents the results of a comprehensive scope of key opportunities and challenges for harnessing migration for inclusive growth and development at the regional level in Southern Africa.

Special Issue of International Migration (2017). Cultivating the Migration-Food Security Nexus, by Jonathan Crush and Mary Caesar, introduces this seven-chapter issue.

SAMP has received funding from the International Development Research Centre (IDRC), CIDA, UK-DFID, the Open Society Initiative for Southern Africa (OSISA) and the ACP Migration Observatory.